

Spray Dispenser 250 ml Stainless Steel afp-c, NSU 2-2 E/D ST

Product sheet

Whether you work in the food industry or in the healthcare sector, optimal hand hygiene is essential. With the spray dispenser from SanTRAL, filled with alcohol, you can intensively disinfect your hands and prevent the transmission of unwanted pathogens. There is no better way to disinfect - alcohol cleans the hands deep into the pores. That is also necessary when you work in an environment where optimal hand hygiene is a requirement. The SanTRAL Spray Dispenser contains 250 ml of (hand) alcohol.
