

Automatic hand dryer plastic black, M04AB

Anyone who looks carefully at the designs of the Mediclinics line will not overlook the special combination between simple materials and high-quality design. Both with the finely shaped and robust accessories, the architect has never lost sight of this combination. This automatic hand dryer does not catch the eye immediately. The subtle lines and the black exterior provide a modest dispenser, focused on practical usability. With an air temperature of 47°C
