

Hand Dryer Push Button Black, E05B

Product sheet

This black hand dryer from Mediclinics proves that simplicity can also be stylish. The subtle variant of the E88B offers the same power and comfort as its big brother, despite its compact size. The black powder-coated frame underscores the robustness of this subtle hand dryer. Operation is simple – the hand dryer activates as soon as the toilet user presses the button. The perfect temperature combined with precisely tuned air velocity ensures that your hands are dried within
