

Foam soap dispenser 1500 ml stainless steel white

Foam soap dispenser 1500 ml stainless steel white, DJF0032

White: sterile, cold and boring? Nonsense! A light and bright sanitary area will always leave your guests with a hygienic and clean impression. For this reason many designers opted for this white version of the stainless steel Mediclinics 1500 ml foam soap dispenser. Style, design and ease of use. These three key concepts played an important role in the design of this modern Mediclinics foam soap dispenser. The taut lines of this unique dispenser's design will complement almost any modern sanitary area. The stainless steel push button on the front of the spotlessly clean white housing adds a touch of refinement. The dispenser can hold 1500 ml of foam soap which makes it ideal for use in highly frequented areas.
