

Hand dryer black push button

Hand dryer push button black, E05B (Saniflow)

This black Mediclinics hand dryer clearly demonstrates that simplicity always does the trick. The subtle variant of the E88B offers the same power and comfort as its big brother despite its more limited size. The black powder-coated frame underlines the robustness of this subtle hand dryer. It is easy to use and will be automatically activated as soon as the toilet visitor places his hands beneath the nozzle. The perfect temperature in combination with the precisely set air speed ensures that your hands are completely dry within thirty seconds. Ideal for those visitors for whom time is precious. Would the E88B's little brother be a great addition to your sanitary area? Then request a quote now!
