

Hand dryer black automatic

Hand dryer automatic black, E05AB (Saniflow)

A modest appearance but with the hidden strengths of a regular muscleman. This description fits the Mediclinics - Hand Dryer Black Automatic, E05AB to a tee. The subtle variant of the E88AB offers the same power and comfort as its big brother despite its more limited size. The black powder-coated frame underlines the robustness of this subtle hand dryer. As is the case with all other Mediclinics line hand dryers, the E05AB is all about ease of use. No irritating manuals or difficult user instructions; this hand dryer will work when it is supposed to. As soon as the toilet visitor places his hands under the nozzle the hand dryer will be activated. The perfect temperature in combination with the precisely set air speed ensures that your hands are completely dry within thirty seconds. Would you prefer a simple design with an efficient use?
