

Hotello White BLDC

Hair dryer heavy duty white with tube, Hotello BLDC

A good hair dryer is essential if you want to dry and model your hair properly because the warmth and airflow always ensure a great result. A hair dryer must continue to function optimally, even when used by many. This you can be sure of when opting for the Hotello BLDC, the best wall-mounted hair dryer for intensive use (i.e. high visitor frequency), in mainly public areas. The heavy-duty Hotello BLDC has a powerful, durable brushless motor. The (white) wall-mounted hair dryer will switch on automatically once the handgrip is removed from the holder. The handgrip will remain cool and the user can basically move in all directions thanks to the flexible extensible white hose that extends up to 1.2 metres. The Hotello BLDC can be connected to mains power in two different ways; using a wall socket or a direct connection. Its safety is guaranteed by the automatic 8-minute safety timer. Interested?
